"The Corn Is Green" Starring Bette Davis Is Really A Feature You Should See.

For showing at the Roxy theatre tonight, Friday and Saturday, of this week, Manager Art Vickers believes he has secured one of the finest dramatic pictures of recent years in "The Corn Is Green".

Bette Davis again proves her ability to handle a different role. As Miss Moffat, a school teacher who is determined to bring enlightenment and knowledge to a Welsh mining town and especially to a talented young mine boy, she carries admirably the burden of an overlong script. This picture will be favorably received wherever there is a following of Davis fans. Exceptionally fine performances are given by two newcomers, John Dall, as Miss Moffat's protégé who is driven on to win an Oxford scholarship, and Joan Loring, as a new kind of screen female menace. The featured players are backed up by a supporting cast which turns in uniformly excellent characterizations as Welsh towns people. Musical Director Leo F. Forbstein has provided a background of beautiful and nostalgic Welsh choral music.

STAND YOUR CHRISTMAS TREE IN WATER SAYS CHIEF LEPAGE

"Householders should set their Christmas trees in a pan of water not only to reduce the fire hazard, but to keep the trees green," Fire Chief Alf. LePage tells The Independent. He was commenting on the increased number of fires which invariably occurs at the festive season.

The plan, he said, should also appeal to housewives who have been plagued by "Yule tree gremlins," those tiny but vexatious needles which fall from a dried-out tree and become lodged under rugs, down the backs of chairs and chesterfields, but which are never quite eliminated until it is time to bring the next year's tree in the house.

Now that the people are beginning to replenish their supply of tree ornaments, the chief recommends only non-inflammable gadgets be purchased, and inflammable decorations relegated to the garbage can.

"Maybe it's idealistic, but I'd certainly like to see a fire extinguisher in the home especially around this time of year," stated the chief, who warns that discarded wrappings from gifts should be placed as soon as possible in a metal container and never stuffed in large quantities in the stove or furnace. "Let's make this a warm Christmas but not a blazing one!" he asks.

Dangerous Driving Charge Dismissed

Philip And Ann Soroka Held Not Guilty By Jury — Case Arose From Robt. Blaine's Death.

The dangerous driving charges against Ann and Philip Soroka before Judge William F. Schwenger of Hamilton, at the sitting of the jury sittings of the Lincoln County Court, were dismissed last Wednesday when the jury after due deliberation of the evidence brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Ann and her father Philip Soroka were jointly charged following an accident on June 17th when a truck driven by Soroka's daughter struck six year-old Robert Blaine on Highway 8 in Grimsby, the boy subsequently dying of his injuries. In the case, unique in the history of Lincoln County court, Philip Soroka is charged along with his daughter due to the fact that Ann Soroka was driving the truck without a driver's licence.

In presenting the case for the Crown, E. H. Lancaster, K.C., asked the jury "to disregard the death of the boy, regrettable as it may be."

Survey Of County Is Now Completed

St. Catharines Rotary Club Looking After Crippled Children Of Lincoln — Will Expand The Work.

The principal activity of the St. Catharines Rotary Club is crippled children's work and almost all cases that require assistance in Lincoln County and the district surrounding St. Catharines are handled through the club's crippled children's committee. As this is the only Rotary Club in the county, the task of looking after so large a territory is a heavy one.

In the past few months the committee has conducted a survey to find other cases in the district not so far being cared for by the club. At Friday's meeting of the club president W. B. Rollason called on three members of this committee for reports on what has been done in recent months and what plans are made for the future.

The first of the speakers called upon for details of the progress of

Make it a date for Wednesday night next to "doshie doe and away we go, corn in the basket and seven hands 'round, swing Big Mary she's sweatin'."

Sharpshooters? Grimsby Has 'Em

Use Reservoir Depth Indicator Stiff For Target And Cut It With Bullets To Pieces.

Mayor Harry Bull and Waterworks Supt. Andy Henderson have arrived at the conclusion that Grimsby possesses somewhere the best marksmen or markswomen with a rifle in the Dominion.

For several days Supt. Henderson and the engineers at the pump house were worried because the indicator ball on the reservoir was not showing at any time, consequently they had to be easy on their pumping for fear of overflowing the reservoir.

Finally Supt. Henderson made the long, wearisome climb up the mountainide and discovered that the ball was at the bottom of the pole that it raised and lowered on and that the top half of the pole was missing.

Investigation showed that the wooden shaft had been used as a target for sharpshooting about halfway between top and bottom and in due course of time had been perforated to such an extent that it just toppled over of its own top weight. The pole clearly indicates that it was bullets that did the job.

Last Session Of County Council

Advocate Establishment Of New Home For Elderly People With Chronic Ailments.

A home for elderly people who suffer from chronic ailments and thus are not adapted to become inmates of county industrial homes has been proposed for this district by Welland county council. A report of negotiations for such a home was read to Lincoln county council Tuesday morning as it started its final session of the year.

Clerk A. J. Babioni, of Welland county, reported that a committee of Welland county council favored setting up such a home in "Winston Hall," Fort Erie. With the idea of serving Lincoln, Welland and Haldimand counties, and the cities of St. Catharines, Welland and Niagara Falls, Mr. Babioni wrote that these municipalities would be informed of progress and consulted before purchase was made. Meantime, Welland county has written the War Assets Corporation, who control "Winston Hall," and asked to be considered before the premises were disposed of.

Special care for elderly people with chronic ailments is considered necessary because of their physical condition. It is also desirable because accommodation of existing county homes is taxed to capacity at the present time with elderly people in fairly good health. It is

The Independent observed the big gasoline and oil distributing truck of "Bill" Byford standing on Main street the other day and the thought occurred that it is a long stretch of time since coal oil was first peddled in this district by an old horse and wagon.

The first delivery of coal oil in the Grimsby district was to the stores only. This coal oil was brought from St. Catharines every week on a horse drawn wagon loaded with wooden barrels with Minister Of Agriculture Tells Deputation Of Growers That Red Netting Will Not Be Ordered Done Away With — Cover Is All Right It's What Is Packed Under It.

The Ontario Government has no intention of following the example of the Federal authorities in banning the sale or shipment of peaches or other fruit in baskets covered with "leno" (colored netting, usually red). This assurance was given at Queen's Park Friday to a deputation of nearly 100 peach growers from the Niagara and Leamington districts by Labor Minister Charles Daley, member for Lincoln speaking on behalf of Agriculture Minister T. L. Kennedy.

Growers, deeply concerned over reports that "leno" baskets were to be prohibited next year in Ontario gathered in Toronto on Friday, held an organization meeting at the King Edward Hotel, and then proceeded to Parliament Buildings with a petition asking that present type containers be continued and that the Ontario Government bring pressure on Ottawa to relax a restriction which will prevent shipment of Ontario peaches to other Provinces except in boxes or some other type of package.

Bylaw to Purchase Hewson Strip Paralleling Livingston Avenue Defeated On Tie Vote — Deputation Request That Council Rescind Bylaw To Do Away With Water Commission But Create Public Utilities Commission Instead.

At the October meeting of Town council, Councillor John Hewitt gave notice of motion that he would, at the November meeting of council, introduce a bylaw to be presented to the ratepayers at the January election to dissolve the Water Commission and have their duties assumed by Town council.

At the November meeting the bylaw was given the necessary first and second reading and passed on for ratification or otherwise by the taxpayers.

I have no intention of contesting any position at this election, therefore I am not doing this in order to gain any votes, but simply because I believe that it would be in the best interests of the town in the very immediate future to have the dual body of Public Utilities Commission, but in the meantime leave the Water Commission in office."

Other gentlemen spoke along similar lines and councillors all expressed their views, all agreeing

CIGAR STORE INDIANS

Are you old enough to remember the wooden Indians and sometimes the wooden Highlanders which used to stand at the doors of City tobacconists, proffering wooden cigars to passersby? There were quite a lot of these, one recalls, but where oh where have they vanished? Probably the fate of most was to be split up and burned in the household fire but a few escaped and some of those, in American cities at least, became museum pieces among private collectors, most of whom had never smoked a Peg Top cigar.

The first cigar store Indian, states News from Home, of New York, in a reminiscent number, is believed to have made its appearance at the door of a London tobacco shop early in the eighteenth century. The United States soon adopted the symbol, for a figure of Pocahontas stood at the entrance of a Boston tobacconist's as far back as 1730. Pocahontas was of course, the daughter of an Indian chief, and saved the life of Capt. John Smith by embracing his head just as the savages were about to smash it with clubs. This princess later married John Rolfe and thus became the ancestress of several aristocratic Virginia families.

It was not until the time of General Andrew Jackson's presidency (1820-1837) of the United States that the golden age of the wooden redmen set in. In the Eastern States these wooden figures were sculptured by the makers of ships' figureheads and animals for merry-go-rounds and by skilled craftsmen who carved appropriate decorations for circus wagons. Farther west they were made by German and Swiss settlers, wood-workers who, in their native lands, had served long apprenticeships whittling out inmates for Noah's ark. These wood carvers did not confine their work to Indians. Turkish figures, bandmasters, Punch, Pickwick, firemen and others served equally well to advertise a cigar store, just as the striped barber poles which still survive proclaim the salons of tonsorial artists. Several specimens of carved wooden firemen outlast the olden days in New York, we are told. One of the finest, a fire ladder holding a rescued child, is the treasured landmark of Cairns and Brother, fire cap makers since 1836.

OLD DRUG STORE SIGNS

With the turn of the century cigar store Indians and their like were gradually driven from the streets by local governments, who began to worry about obstructing pedestrians, though some are fondly preserved as examples of a typically American art. Notwithstanding the early London Indian it was in America that these effigies, mostly braves with feathered headdress and bright with paint, came into their own.

Disappearance of the wooden Indian recalls that the once common insignia of a drug store has just about gone the same road. Time was when almost every chemist's shop in the country displayed in its windows several large glass jars filled respectively with red, green, blue and sometimes yellow fluid. This was only dyed water but it looked impressive, especially after dusk, when lights behind the jars lent them a deep rich glow. One could see from afar the presence of an apothecary's. Often there was an additional emblem in the shape of a mortar and pestle street sign.

THE MILKMAN'S BELL

In those days druggists sold mainly drugs and medicines and made up a lot of prescriptions. Some sold ice cream sodas but lunch counters were absent and a lot of the articles now on sale, including tobacco. There was a distinctive atmosphere in old drug stores redolent of the stock-in-trade. Mortar and pestle signs are still seen but the glowing colored jars have almost disappeared.

While on the subject of vanished trade emblems, there was the milkman's brass bell. When he stopped old Dobbin along the milk route the driver would clang his summons lustily. Therat housewives were wont to emerge from their homes with pitchers or pails into which the milkman would ladle out milk or cream from the big cans in the front of his cart. And the lactal fluid he ladled out so casually was unpasteurized.

MARBLE MANTELPICES

Though they barely come into the picture of old customs and fashions one cannot forbear a reference to the white marble mantelpieces once so common and now rare in this country. Quite unpretentious homes had such furnishings in parlor sitting room or elsewhere. In big houses they abounded half a century ago or earlier and some were very handsomely carved. Much of the better marble came from Italian quarries.

But in due course they went out of fashion and people were glad to be rid of them when golden oak became popular around open grates. So when big old homes were pulled down and smaller ones, too, the white marble mantelpieces were scrapped.

MEMORIES

Look back, my heart, toward the old home place,
Its door ajar, its windows without light;
The picket fence, like ragged worn-out lace,
Still holds the gate that swings and creaks tonight.
Look back, my heart, to this dear aged house
Where trees keep watch and fluttering sparrows dwell—

It trembles with the scampering mouse
Dropping a shingle in the stagnant well.
Recall again the love that once was there—
The fragrance in the scrubbed and friendly hall;
The flickering lamp; the high-backed rocking chair;
The gold-framed portraits on the parlor wall.
Of childhood's day, no memory shall depart,
Without honour and with pride — look back, my heart!

CANADA UNLIMITED - The Formative Years

A Lawn Social of the 1840's—by Jack Martin O.S.A., C.P.E.

The Gracious Sociability of the Past

IT IS NOT LONG—not greatly beyond living memory—that the idea of responsible government took root in the fabric of this forming nation.

Look back through the swiftly turning years. Picture the lawn social of the middle 1840's, years when restless minds and burning energies were forming the mould of a "Canada Unlimited" . . . Milady voluminously gowned, is still mildly shocked at the idea that the governor should bow to the wishes of an elected assembly. Her top-hatted consort, too, is probably vaguely troubled at this new notion of freedom. Nonetheless, it is the spirit of the time.

A pioneer land is getting ready to become a Nation. Men of enterprise like Eugene O'Keefe are laying the cornerstones of ventures yet to grow great. There's an awakening realization of latent power. Canadians are seeing a vision—of a Canada Unlimited.

These hundred years have justified that vision! Through prosperity, through adversity, through smiling years of peace and troubled years of war a Canada Unlimited has emerged. And the next hundred? The will is there. The men and women, the power and the resources are there to make a greater land than was ever dreamed of.

And to each of us in this year of grace comes an opportunity to re-affirm our faith in the future by our purchase and holding of Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates.

The Wonder Of Natural Gas

Natural gas is closely related to petroleum in composition. It is composed chiefly of methane or marsh gas, with smaller amounts of other hydrocarbon gases. Natural gas and petroleum had their origin in plant and animal forms that lived millions of years ago, and were buried in the sands, shales and limestones deposited by bodies of water.

Natural gas is therefore sought in these sedimentary rocks. It may occur from only a few feet to many thousands of feet below the surface of the ground. Often large quantities are found in rock structures like domes or folds which trap gas as it moves through the porous sandstones or the cavernous limestones. Some impervious layer of rock, like shale, is necessary for the accumulation of gas as it helps to keep it from seeping up into the younger rocks above.

Natural gas is found in nearly every province of Canada, but is of most importance in Alberta and Ontario. Smaller quantities are produced in New Brunswick, Saskatchewan, Quebec and the Northwest Territories.

In Ontario natural gas is produced in commercial quantities in southwestern Ontario in the area south of an imaginary line joining Hamilton and Sarnia. It has been used for half a century for heating and cooking and industrial purposes. At present approximately eight billion cubic feet of natural gas are produced annually and used by over one hundred thousand consumers. Discovery of new fields has not kept pace with the consumption of the gas, so other sources have had to be found. It has been necessary to argument the natural gas supply by manufactured gas and the importation of natural gas from the United States.

In Alberta most of the production is in the Turner Valley field. Calgary and Lethbridge and surrounding districts use gas piped from this field. The Edmonton area is supplied by gas from the Viking and Kinsella fields. Much of the gas in Alberta, as distinct from that of Ontario, is produced along with the oil. The buoyant and propulsive power of the gas aids greatly in the production of the oil. Earlier practices of allowing the gas to blow off was stopped when it was recognized that greater quantities of oil could be obtained from the rocks if the gas and oil were recovered together.

The total production of natural gas in Canada in 1943 was approximately forty-three billion cubic feet of which seventy-five per cent was produced in Alberta.

A writer says the airplane business is getting closer to earth. You can tell that is true by the number of crashes.

"that's a fine home you're building!"

YES, I think I'm going to like it.

I wish I had a home of my own.

Well, why not?
My wife has the idea that it would be a great worry if anything happened to me.

Nothing to it, my boy. The arrangements I've made with the SUN LIFE OF CANADA will clear the mortgage in the event of my untimely death.

I never thought of that. What about the cost?

Insignificant! In fact, it adds very little to the carrying charge of the mortgage.

IF you are a home-owner, make your investment safe for posterity. A SUN LIFE man will be glad to talk it over with you.

SPORTOLOGY

(By Bones Livingston, Sportologist)

IT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF—Dear Bones:—The nose Peach Kings at last is no more. I knew when they got a couple of the old originals, Harry Reid and Archie Dixon on the Board of Directors that they would surely do something about it. They no doubt figure that away too many would-be hockey teams have cashed in on a name that will go down in history with such names as Granites, Soo Greyhounds, Sudbury Wolves, etc. And a name made famous by only one team and by no other team since. So thanks fellows, I still can tell people I played with the Peach Kings and they will understand that it was not the West Lincoln Memorial—J. R. McVicar.

IS RUSHTON A HOUDINI?—They say that it takes a wizard of a horse trainer to pick out a young colt running loose in a field with a herd of other colts, that will turn out to be a champion. BIG RUSHTON is in exactly that same spot. He is going to be a Houdini if he can pick a championship team out of the herd of players that turned out to practise Friday and Monday nights, without breaking a blood vessel or going down with nervous prostration. There were just 40 candidates on hand all trying for spots on the team and believe me by the time he gets them all weeded out and takes the best for himself he will still have a fair kind of team left over to give to somebody for a Christmas present. The boys put in two hours in relays at the practices and in a few days the sifting process will start but not until all the lads have their ice legs under them and have got properly limbered up. RUSH I don't envy you your job. I'll take your coffee shop instead. BERT SMITH is again back at the ARENA with his refreshment booth and skate sharpening apparatus. It will feel kind of good to sip a cup of SMITTY'S hot coffee between periods again and hear him give his version of the play on the ice.

WINONA hockey club is holding a big drawing for nine valuable prizes in order to raise money to equip their team. The prizes will be drawn for at the ARENA on January 7th. Buy your ticket quick. . . . That the public are skating hungry was proven on Saturday night at the opening of the ARENA. The biggest skating crowd that ever floated over the perfectly glossy sheet of ice was on hand to enjoy the sport. For the first time since the ARENA was built the management had to stop selling tickets for skating. . . . UNCLE BILL HEWITT the Grand Old Man of the O.H.A. has announced that Grimsby will be grouped in the Intermediate "B" series with Port Colborne Legion, Hagerville, Paris, Port Dover and Dunnville, if that town decides to place a team in intermediate series. JACK ROXBOROUGH of Simcoe has been appointed convener of the group. . . . I knew it would happen just as soon as there was ice at Arena. Three weeks ago he was exclaiming to the world, and nobody in particular, "I'm done with hockey. I had my day. Let somebody else do it. No sir-e-e-e, I'm done". Sure he was done until they threw the igloo open on Saturday night and now he is into hockey over his ears and they are big ears too. Monsieur JERRY CARSON, the only man that ever played hockey in the Fruit Belt that could talk to a puck, travelling 60 miles an hour, in three languages and make it understandable. JERRY a little fatter and a little better looking than 20 years ago, is going to help BIG RUSH knock those rough spots off his crew of iron shod bimbos. Wonder what Arnette says about this?

GET POSTED ON THE RULES—Since a hockey team last performed on Grimsby ice the brainy (?) rule makers have done a lot of tampering and tinkering. It will pay all fans who have not attended any games in the past two years, or more to make sure that they know the new rules and changes before they go into Marr's frozen water dugout and start razzing the referee when he toots his whistle for an infraction of the rules. Here are three very important points that you should know. Heretofore a player could be at the red line in centre ice and accept a passout from his own blue line, providing his entire body was behind the red line, only his stick could be over the line. This year he can have one foot over the red line and his stick stuck out in front of him providing he has one foot behind the red line when he accepts the pass, in other words he can be in full stride, but that one foot must be behind the red line. . . . In previous years a player could pull the old Pud Reid stalling act of tying a shoe lace, fixing a pad, looking for cracks in his stick etc., without breaking any rule. That is now all out. Any player needing adjustments made to his gear must go to the box to do so. He cannot stop and do it on the ice. If he does he gets a two minute penalty. . . . Last year a player could be penalized and had to serve that penalty. That is partly out. Now he can be penalized but the team manager has the right to select any other player that is on the ice to serve the penalty, thus the team will be playing short handed but will still have the goalie on the job. Better cut this out for future reference. You also better talk to your friends who have been going to hockey games for the past two winters regarding other changes in playing rules.

WHEN DO WE CHANGE THE PEACH QUEEN'S NAME—If it isn't MARY NORTON that is burning up the alleys it is some one else on the VALIANTS team. This time it is MARGARET BONHAM who twirled a 197-269-150 for a 616. GOLDEN DROPS cute little BERNICE BYFORD popped back into the limelight with a 241-197-176 for a 614. Her sister RUTH also had a game of 213. . . . HELEN FISHER of the VICEROY team tuned in with 195-208-198 for a 601. That little GEDDES girl on the ST. JOHN team was well on the way to setting a high score when she skidded on a peach peel. She had a 206 and a 215 and fell down to 120. Too bad. RED SMOKE is coming back she flipped a 284-137-192 for 613. Give that little CLEMENS girl on the SOUTH HAVEN team some credit, she had 255-203 and then dropped to 140. At that she got within two points of 600. PHIL DUNHAM woke them all up with 269-220-149 for 638, bowling for the VIMY team. I hope some of youse men bowlers be allertinin' in.

FIRST SPASM IS ALL OVER—MEN'S BOWLING league wound up the first half of the season's schedule on Wednesday night last. Complete standing of the teams for the first half of the sked, in the two sections, along with the player and team averages appear this week. To finish up with DUNHAM'S OWLS gathered themselves three points. . . . PEACH KINGS broke even with YOU DEE ELLS and OLD SMOKE McBRIDE still was bowling over the 500 mark while JEFFERIES of the U.D.L.'s rolled a 720 with a 196, 230 and 294. BARBERS got three points against the LEGIONAIRES with AMBY POWELL rolling a 201 and crowding the 300 mark with a 285. . . . To finish the end of the run PONY EXPRESS managed to garner one point and it was RAPE HAILS 270 that done that. BLACK CATS got the other three points without the services of OLIVER BALONEY SHAW which goes to prove that he's not so hot. . . . In the league standing CAS HOUSE topped the first section with 36 points. In the second section the GENERALS were leaders with 34 points with WONDERS one mark behind. GASSERS didn't have any margin to blow-off about, for the PIN TWISTERS 35, the BLACK CATS 33 and the PIRATES 32. . . . The boys are away again in play of the second half of the championship race. . . . I have discovered a bowling man who is the model husband. He never is late for meals; never grouches when it is liver when he expected T-bone steaks; never works late at the office; stays home on Monday and does the family wash. What a Jim-Jam-Jem he be. Don't rush girls, there are no more. He is the last of the species. . . . CORNCOB ZIMMERMAN and UNCLE JIM SHACKLETON sure have the MEN'S league wheeling alone on roller bearings. Take a gander at those averages. It's a lulu of a set-up. . . . My wife says that if I don't quit hanging around the BOWLAWAY on the nights the QUEEN'S bowl she is going to divorce me. Jealousy, the Green-eyed Monster. . . . Doff your chapeaus to the BUSINESS GIRLS ASSOCIATION for the grand job they have just finished in the hospital funds campaign. They are a fine bunch of lassies. . . . GAS HOUSE keep right on gassing along. DOUG. HARTNETT was the bad man Monday night with a 276-266-156 for a 698. He's heavy on the sixes. Just for your information HONEY SHELTON and GAS RAHN were also present. . . . PIRATES have gone rabid again. Hung up a team score of 3286. Had 10 games well over 200. CHARLIE CLATTENBURG didn't know a bowling ball from a golf ball. It's different now. He spinned a 236-244-219 for a 699. In the third game the five men rolled 194-219-201-208-342. Of course LITTLE WHIZZER would have to spoil the 200 charm with his 194. He gets out next week. . . . So long until next week. I gotta go and listen to BIG RUSH elucidating to his hockey mannequins.

"...SO NOW WE'LL HAVE A BANKER IN THE FAMILY!"

"Well, Bob has finally decided! When he's finished school he wants to go to work in a bank. And I'm glad—for a lot of reasons..."

He'll get a thorough training, and can even receive university instruction in banking and economics while he is working. Banking isn't learned in a day, but he'll get lots of help—and every opportunity to move up as he proves himself. The road to the top is wide open, and offers:

SECURITY AND PEACE OF MIND

Social security is a phrase prominent in public discussions these days, but the practice of it is not new. Consider the banks and their employees:

1. Pension Funds, to which, with their employees, banks themselves contribute substantially, make it possible for employees to devote all their business lives to banking, sure of an income for life when they reach the age of retirement.
2. Annual vacations with pay, and special sick leave arrangements in special cases.
3. Ordinary sick leave with pay, and special sick leave arrangements in special cases.
4. Group life insurance contributed to jointly by banks and employees.
5. Good working conditions.
6. Unlimited opportunity for enterprise and advancement.

Banks and theraffs, in co-operation with each other, have made it possible the latter to enjoy a well-founded sense of permanency and serenity.

Fire Alarm

This week's "E" for Effort goes to Mrs. Lester Ree of Teaneck, N.J. When her clothesline broke in a howling gale, Mrs. Ree watched her week's laundry take off over town with sinking heart, but high courage. Where lesser women might have burst into tears, Mrs. Ree called the fire department. She and the ladder truck set out in bold pursuit, tracked the washing to the west shore railway tracks, where sheets and pillow cases were draped over telephone and telegraph wires like carnival streamers. Mrs. Ree mounted a ladder with the rest of the boys, personally directed the retrieving with such excellence of judgment and daring, that only one sheet was torn.

Days After Tomorrow

Maybe this simple, rustic attitude will never get us anywhere, but we like to know where to look for our Junes and Januaries. That's why the name of Willard Edwards fills us with foreboding. Mr. Edwards is the man who is planning a shake-up in the calendar. He doesn't like the present arrangement. Lacks fixity, he says. To hurdle this obstacle, he has arranged a year of 364 days, plus New Year's Day, separate from any month or week. It would be followed by Monday, the first day of the year. Leap Year Day, a holiday, would also be separate at the half-year mark. Things like Christmas and Labor Day would always fall on Monday, which would certainly brighten up Monday. His plan was approved by the San Francisco conference and is at present up for discussion before the United States Congress. We can't hope to beat that, but since there's going to be a shuffle, we'd like to submit a few suggestions. If you could accomplish the same thing, by omitting Income Tax Day, and substituting a Pay Day followed by two nameless holidays to take the place of Tuesday and Wednesday.

Hello, Homemakers! Planning this made-to-be shared Christmas dinner for the MacKays—a returned veteran and his English bride—has been real fun. They are the kind of pleasant, happy people one likes to be with and I could visualize your home in their home and your Christmas wishes in theirs.

The MacKays want this Christmas to be a memorable one. No matter what lies ahead, they have made up their minds that this holiday season their home will be gay with love, laughter and coloured lights. What is even more important, they want the true meaning of Christmas to shine through every minute of the day. Christmas means the happiness of sharing with others. Like most of us the MacKays have found that dollars do not grow on trees. Sharing their festive dinner will mean cutting corners somewhere on their costs. We have suggested the following:

Christmas Cocktail
Roast Turkey—Herb Dressing
Giblet Gravy—Broiled Tangerines
Browned Potatoes—Creamed Corn
Aspic Relish Salad
Sour Cream Rolls
Fruit Pudding—Plain Sauce
Coffee

HOT CHRISTMAS PUNCH
1 lb. cranberries, 4 cups water, 1 tsp. grated orange rind, 1 tsp. grated lemon rind, 1/4 cup honey or 1 cup sugar, 1 cup orange juice, 1/2 cup lemon juice, 2 cups additional water.

Cook cranberries with the four cups of water and grated rinds. Remove from element. Add remaining ingredients and serve.

BROILED TANGERINES
Cut tangerines in half, remove core and loosen sections. Place on broiler rack. Heat thoroughly under hot top oven element. Add 1/2 tsp. butter and 1 tsp. brown sugar. Continue broiling until brown. (May be sprinkled with cinnamon.)

INDIVIDUAL FRUIT PUDDING
1/2 cupful raisins, 1/2 cupful currants, 1/4 cup mixed peel, two-thirds cup chopped suet, 1/2 cup light molasses, one-half cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup sour milk, 1 beaten egg, 1 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1 scant tsp. baking soda, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1 tsp. cinnamon, 1/2 tsp. cloves, 1/4 tsp. nutmeg.

Prepare the fruits; add the sugar suet, molasses, egg and milk beaten together. Mix and sift the dry ingredients and add, mixing thoroughly so the fruits are distributed evenly throughout. Grease individual moulds or custard cups; fill two-thirds full with the pudding and steam 2 1/2 hours.

CHRISTMAS CARROT PUDDING
2 eggs, 1 cup grated carrot, 1 cup grated potato, 1 cup chopped fine suet, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1 cup Sultana raisins, 1 cup seeded raisins, or 1/2 cup raisins and 1/2 cup currants, 1/4 cup mixed peel, 1/2 tsp. nutmeg, 1/2 tsp. allspice, 1 tsp. baking powder, 1 tsp. salt, 1 cup flour.

Beat eggs slightly. Add sugar, suet, grated vegetables, peel and fruit. Sift flour with baking powder, salt and spices. Mix together.

Fill a well-greased bowl two-thirds full and steam 3 hours. Reheat by steaming 1 hour before serving time.

OLD FASHIONED PUDDING SAUCE

Grimsby Bible Society Service

by HOLLIS

Those attending the Union Service at Trinity United Church last Sunday evening found it both stimulating and informative, for Grimsby Branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society was fortunate in securing Mr. H. S. Sanders, colporteur, of Hamilton, as speaker.

Mr. Sanders outlined first the aims and objects of the Bible Society and the work it has accomplished, then, out of his 33 years experience as colporteur in Ontario told many a sparkling and heart-lifting anecdote. For not only does the colporteur distribute and sell the printed word of God, he must needs be an evangelist, too, and very often the opportunity is given him to introduce his "prospects" to the Author of the Book. In cities, towns and villages and in remote country places he goes from door to door with his Bibles and portions of Scripture and his ready sympathy for the unhappy and the misguided.

The war service of the Bible Society was notable. A contract was entered into with the British Government to supply the New Testament to all in uniform. Seven hundred thousand copies were given to the Canadian forces, and four thousand New Testaments in special waterproof cases were placed in rubber life rafts and life boats.

Not only is the Bible Society a book concern, it is a missionary concern as well. It is the handmaiden of all the churches and without it all missionary effort would cease. The Bible is printed in more than 700 translations, and Mr. Sanders has been asked for it in Russian, German, Gaelic, Rumanian, Finnish, French and many more.

The British and Foreign Bible Society (of which the Upper Canada Bible Society is an Auxiliary) was founded in London, England, in 1804; and that Mr. Sanders reminded his listeners was wartime, too. Napoleon had over-run much of Europe, and Britain was an armed camp with invasion of her coasts imminent. The tears of a young Welsh girl were responsible for the founding of the Society.

Little Mary Jones longed above all things for a Bible of her own. At the age of 11 she began working for a neighbouring farmer's wife. When she was 17 she had saved enough money to buy a Bible. None was to be had nearer than Bala, 25 miles away. So Mary started out barefoot early one morning, reaching the town the same evening. She spent the night at the Methodist parsonage and before daylight next morning was taken to the house of Dr. Charles who, it was hoped, had a Welsh Bible for disposal. The Bible, however, had already been spoken for, and in Mary's disappointment she gave way to tears. Moved by the child's grief, Dr. Charles said, "My dear child, I see you must have a Bible, difficult as it is for me to spare one. It is simply impossible for me to refuse you." Then turning to a book cupboard he took out the precious volume and placed it in her hand.

Two years later Dr. Charles visited London and made an appeal before the Religious Tract Society for Bibles for Wales. Rev. Joseph Hughes one of the secretaries, moved by the story of Mary Jones, exclaimed, "Mr. Charles, surely a society might be formed for the purpose; and if for Wales, why not for the world?" So did the British and Foreign Bible Society come into being.

The Reverends M. McAvoy, R. C. Standerwick and W. J. Watt assisted in the service, and the choir rendered most acceptably the anthem "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness." A solo by Miss Beverley Sneed, of Smithville, "Thanks be to God," was greatly appreciated.

Despite the price of them the average person has enough clothes nowadays to put in moth balls.

John A. Marsh, latterly special assistant to the Minister, Department of Munitions and Supply, has been appointed Commissioner of the Ontario Division, Canadian Red Cross Society.

Girl Guides

DIVISION OF WEST LINCOLN.

Last Thursday, December 6th, was a gala day for the 1st Grimsby Beach Company. Eight new recruits were enrolled as Tenderfoot Guides and duly attached to their several patrols. Twelve Guides who had been in the Company since its formation a year ago received their Service Stars, and one Guide, who had moved into the Company after two years in the 50th I.O.D.E., Grimsby Company, had earned in addition to her three Service Stars her second Class Badge and three Proficiency Badges—Collector, Knitter, and Toymaker. These badges are evidence of the value of Lone Guiding, for they were worked for during a period of enforced inactivity under medical treatment, and the Guide found in these occupations a zest and new skills which brightened those dull days.

The Division Commissioner inspected the Company, enrolled the recruits and bestowed the badges. She congratulated the Captain, Miss Shirley Davidson, on the smart appearance of the four patrols, and on the happy atmosphere that informed the meeting. This is due to the happy comradeship which has from the beginning existed between Guides, Guides, and the committee of mothers from the Home and School Association, who led by their convenor, Mrs. Gillespie, encourage Guiding with the most active co-operation. After campfire at which a new "Tenderfoot Billie" game was played for the benefit of the newly-enrolled, the mothers provided a gargantuan feast. The Foxlease Grace was sung in three parts and then twenty-four Guides, the two Guides, and Miss Florence Brown did full justice to the mothers' hospitality.

When little Mary goes home and tells Dad and Mum about her Guide meeting, one of them may ask "What good is it any how? What do you really do there?" The child herself cannot tell, for much of what she receives there comes to her unconsciously. But her character is being gradually directed along the right lines—by "doing" she is "learning." Two thousand years ago Aristotle said: "Men acquire virtues not by knowing what they are, or by talking about them, but by practising them." The little tableaux which the Beach Guides put on last Thursday to illustrate the Guide Law show that Mary and her Guide sisters are learning good citizenship by practising it. Enrolled were: Connie Burke, Catharine Wren, Forget-me-not Patrol; Jean McLellan, Olive Clark, Blue-Bird Patrol; Mary Crich, Brenda Croft, Canary Patrol; Evelyn Wren, Lillian Zalic, Daffodil Patrol.

Obituary

FRED MAW, former Grimsby man passes

(Collingwood Enterprise)
A well-known and highly respected citizen of Collingwood passed away suddenly on Thursday evening, November 29th, in the person of Frederick Maw. He collapsed in his garage while putting on car chains and expired before the doctor arrived.

"Fred," as he was known by all, was a son of the late John Maw and Mary Thompson. He was born near Ivy and would have reached the three score years next March. Before coming to Collingwood he had resided in Grimsby and Hamilton. During the first Great War he served for three years with the 15th Battalion of Simcoe County. About 18 years ago he married Sadie Miller who passed away three years later. Since, he has made his home with the family of his late brother-in-law, John E. Thompson, Third Street, whose son Kitchener, in whom Fred took a great interest, returned home but a week ago after two years service overseas.

The name of Fred Maw was a by-word in Collingwood sporting circles. He was particularly interested in hockey and baseball but any sport where he could lend a hand took his interest and he will certainly be missed. He was active on the executive of the Collingwood Hockey Club when they won the Intermediate Championship in 1935 and the Collingwood Baseball Club when they captured the O.B.A. Intermediate title in 1935. In the young lads too he was interested being president of the Town League hockey group for years.

NOTE—During Mr. Maw's residence in Grimsby he was well known throughout the district for his interest and activities in softball and hockey. During the regime of the famous Peach Kings he acted as goal umpire and timekeeper for the team.—Ed.

Presentation To Mr. T. L. Dymond

On Friday Evening, in Trinity Hall, the Trinity United Choir and the Board of Stewards met to welcome the new church organist and choirmaster, Mr. Donald Kennedy of Toronto, and to honour those who had helped with the church music during the past two and a half years in the absence of the organist. Mr. A. V. Catton, on behalf of the Choir and Stewards, spoke of Mr. T. L. Dymond's invaluable services to the church and presented to Mr. Dymond a beautiful mahogany desk as a token of the regard felt for him by members of the choir and church. Mr. P. E. Wilkins spoke of the time and energy spent on the music for the evening services during that time. This part of the work had been under the leadership of Mrs. D. Macintosh and Mr. W. E. Cullingford. They too were presented with suitable gifts.

Two very enjoyable numbers on the programme were solos by Mr. Harold Jarvis and humorous readings by Mr. G. L. Eaton. Misses Lois Rahn and Joan Eaton were in charge of the games and at the close of the evening Miss Dora Wilkins and her committee served a very enjoyable lunch.

Cubbing

Several proficiency badges were awarded Friday evening after the opening ceremonies. George Stewart was presented with the Collector, Artist and toymaker badges while Donald Geis received the Collector's with a fine display of match covers.

Bill Henley was invested by Akela and now has his place in the owl circle. A lively game of volleyball was followed by an instruction period. Akela assisted by Peter Phelps gave compass instruction, Bagheera first star tests and Baloo compass work. The following tender-pads passed several first star tests and hope soon to show the pack that they have one eye open. Jimmy Durham, Douglas Clark, Donald Grad, George York, Fred Nummaker, Billy Stewart, Terrance Verner, Jackie Hewitt, John Brooks, Jimmy Banks and Harry Tuer.

The meeting closed around the campfire with mouse call and prayers. What the average man would like to do is reach the top of the ladder of success without having to climb it.

Measles Epidemic

Dr. D. V. Currey, Medical Officer of Health for St. Catharines and Lincoln County stated Friday morning that he felt his prediction made some days ago that this epidemic of measles would be the largest in the history of the district is rapidly coming true. There have been 950 cases reported to date in the epidemic which is sweeping the city and surrounding district. Only one death from the disease has been reported, that of a four-year-old child.

Fined For Hunting

Hunter Jenkins, 17, of Beamsville, pleaded guilty in St. Catharines police court last week to charges of shooting a gray squirrel out of season, and hunting without a license. He was fined $10 and costs on each charge, a total of $26. The charges were laid by Game Overseer F. C. Lamour.

There was an open season on gray squirrels in this district November 16-17, but the offense took place on Nov. 24th, after the season was closed again.

Of 50 canvassers, 45 have completed their work, and turned in slightly over $5,000.00, from close to 900 contributors, all reporting very pleasant interviews and well over 90 percent contributing.

Not least, were the experiences of the Business Girls Association, who with a team of 8 canvassers, took on Main Street from Paton to Robinson Street, with an objective of $450.00. Business being the first name of their Association, they tackled the job in a business way and turned in $708.00 with their lists still incomplete.

prove to have been" and also "to disregard the fact that one of the defendants in the case is a highly respectable young woman." Pointing out that Ann Soroka did not have a driver's licence, had never applied for one and did not have a beginner's licence, he informed the jury that it was only called upon to decide whether the defendant was sufficiently qualified to drive the vehicle on the highway when the accident happened.

H. E. Harris, counsel for the defense, in his address to the jury stated that the young woman had been driving for some months, had covered about one thousand miles and was capable of handling the truck.

Placing the case before the jury Judge Schwenger asked the jury to reach a decision of guilty or not guilty on the question of whether at the time of the accident Ann Soroka "froze" to the wheel because of the horror of the accident as the defendant stated or whether her inability to stop the car was due to incompetence. He carefully pointed out to the jury before they retired to reach a verdict that the fact that people sometimes do not have drivers' licences does not necessarily mean that they are not competent drivers.

SURVEY OF COUNTY

the present campaign was E. H. Lancaster, K. C. chairman of the crippled children's committee, described by Mr. Rollason as a man who has done a noble job for which he wished to express the club's thanks. Mr. Lancaster has been chairman of this committee for the past 12 years.

How the county-wide survey was conducted was described by Mr. Lancaster. He said letters were sent to all school teachers, clergy, municipal and medical officers, describing the work of the committee and stating what it hopes to do. On the back of the letter space was provided for a confidential report to the committee of all cases that might come within the scope of the Rotary Club.

Some fifty cases were heard from in this way. Some did not come with Rotary's jurisdiction such as cases of blindness and mental disorders. The former were referred to the Lions Club which specializes in this type of work and the mental cases to the Children's Aid for investigation and treatment. The rest, some 20 to 25 new cases, will be added to the 40 to 50 cases now being sponsored by the club.

Mr. Lancaster said he hoped, with the co-operation of the entire club and with the money the club will raise, to be able to give these children the best medical care possible and to do a job that will be a credit to St. Catharines.

Such a large-scale project cannot be carried through without funds. What amount will be needed and how it is to be raised were discussed.

DO YOU REMEMBER

wooden spigots. Then the railroad came in 1855-56 and the villages and hamlets along its route received their supply in barrels that way. Later the farming community was supplied by a peddler and his wagon going from house to house.

In those days every store that handled coal oil had an old ramshackle building out behind that was the oil house and no coal oil was sold after dark.

Then came electricity and gradually the coal oil houses passed out but the peddler continued in the country. Soon the motor car came on the market and with it the demand for gasoline, which up to this time had been used almost exclusively in stationary engines in manufacturing plants.

Early in the motoring age the Imperial Oil Co. established Herman Book in Grimsby with a horse drawn tank wagon to supply the countryside with gasoline and coal oil. Then came the motor tank truck. During depression years the Imperial Oil Co. pulled out of Grimsby and shortly after "Bill" Byford appeared on the scene and is still here today covering a large section of West Lincoln. His truck delivering to the service station or farmers yard gasoline, oil, grease, lubrication supplies and all other types of petroleum products.

The Byford truck covers more miles in a day now than "coal oil Johnny" and his wagon travelled in a month and more Byford products are delivered in a day than the Old Timer peddled in a year.

Yes, surely it is a long time from the old horse wagon coal oil delivery of the 50's to "Bill" Byford's high speed tank truck of 1945. Time Marches On.

GOVERNMENT COMES

They pointed out that they were not to blame for this year's poor peach crop or for the public dissatisfaction which resulted when peaches, seen through rose-colored netting, turned out to be green and wormy. It was explained that in adverse weather conditions lay the reason why peaches, picked and packed to ripen in two days, failed to ripen for a week or 10 days. They argued that, despite the unfavorable experience this year, leno-covered baskets still had greater sales appeal than any other package.

"We know we're in the doghouse of public opinion," said Walter Sheppard of Queenston, "but it will be a great hardship if this change is made in one year, unless something better is offered."

A. W. Eickmeier of Grimsby Beach said that the delegation had been arranged by the Niagara Peninsula Fruit Growers' Association directors and that "the very life of the Niagara fruit belt depends on retaining leno baskets." No other package would sell as well, he said, and boxed peaches from British Columbia and Michigan had had to be repacked in them to market them in Ontario. The consumer, he maintained, was not "soured" on the baskets but on their poor contents this year. Other years growers had lost thousands of dollars through too rapid ripening on the way to markets. The ban, he said, "is probably Ottawa's way of trying to prevent shipment of Ontario peaches to the West."

Growers attending yesterday were said to represent 6,000 acres of fruit land in the Niagara Peninsula alone. Ira Moyer of Beamsville declared that a change in baskets now would result in a serious basket shortage next year when a one-third increase in the peach crop was expected. Basket costs per pound of fruit would be doubled.

Speaking as a Niagara District member, Labor Minister Daley criticized the "adverse and unfair publicity" Ontario peaches and growers had received in the House of Commons when a member produced and compared a carefully packed box of prize British Columbia peaches with a basket of Ontario peaches bought in the market. He said he would hesitate to recommend any change and gave as-urance that the Drew Government had no intention of doing anything detrimental to any industry. Representations, he promised, would be made to the Federal Government on behalf of the fruit-growers for relaxation of restrictions which will prevent shipment of about 30 per cent of the peach crop to other provinces.

A. C. Wootton, Jordan Station, headed the deputation which conferred for nearly two hours with Mr. Daley. Among others who presented the peach growers' case were: A. L. Bruner, Ruthven; James Gillespie, Grimsby Beach; Melvin Honsberger, Jordan Station; P. E. Tregunno, St. Catharines; E. W. Irwin, St. David's, and D'Arcy Cropp, Stamford Twp.

New System For Sugar Coupons

(Ladies, Clip this out for future reference)

To simplify the present sugar and preserves rationing, Wartime Prices and Trade Board has announced that beginning January 1st, 1946, one coupon will cover purchases of sugar, preserves and allied rationed items.

The new plan, which combines simplification with a step in the direction of decontrol is set at a level slightly above that which existed for consumer ration during the last eight months of 1945. The single coupon will cover the purchase of any one of the following items—1 lb. sugar; 24 oz. of jam, jelly, marmalade, fountain fruits or cranberry sauce; 4 lbs. of honey; 30 oz. corn or table syrup; 80 oz. molasses; 40 oz. canned fruit; 2 lbs. honey-butter; 48 fluid oz. maple syrup; 4 lbs. maple sugar.

On January 1st all valid and unused pink coupons marked "sugar" will take the new ration values of 1 lb. of sugar or the preserves value shown above. On January 17, sugar coupons numbers 68 and 69 will be declared valid and in February the last of these coupons, number 70, will also be validated. After this the "S" coupons are to be used for the sugar-preserves consolidated plan.

All preserves coupons numbers 33 to 57 and all P coupons, numbers P1 to P25, the last four of which become valid December 20, and all unnumbered preserves coupons will expire January 31, 1946. Up to and including that date they may be used to purchase preserves or sugar at the old coupon value.

The allotment of sugar for home canning will be the same as in 1945, ten pounds per person, and will be provided by declaring ten "Q" coupons during the months that most home canning is done. These coupons may be used, as in 1945, for the purchase of either sugar or preserves on the same basis as other regular coupons.

understood that the provincial and federal government would make a grant of 50 cents per day per patient for inmates in such a convalescent home.

Elgin County asked enforcement of a resolution asking the federal government to cancel immediately the franchise of all American trucks travelling through Ontario. Wentworth suggested that the Municipal Act be amended permitting counties to pay for bounties. At the present time the bounty is paid by townships and confusion has arisen over boundary lines in deciding in which municipality the animals were killed.

Peel County asked clarification of the law regarding relief recipients moved into their townships from other municipalities, after the children of a family had been declared wards in their new municipality. Carleton County submitted a brief on neglected children.

Simcoe County urged that the War Assets Corp. turn over to schools all its machinery needed by schools for instruction. M. A. Seymour, K.C., O.B.E. secretary of the St. Catharines General hospital wrote that the hospital is still in need of funds for its rehabilitation program of construction. The county earlier this year granted $2,500 and he said that any further grant would be welcome. He invited council to be dinner guests at the hospital to-morrow.

Minor League Hockey Notes

Who said there was shortage of potential hockey material in Grimsby? Anyone who visited the local ice-palace on Saturday morning last would most certainly have had to retract that statement. It was the opening of the general practice sessions for the midget brigade and Father O'Donnell and Mr. Meizer were simply swamped with youngsters in all stages of hockey array. One hundred and sixty certificates for this particular series were printed and it was thought at the time that this would be more than sufficient for the current year. However these have all been used and still the entries are pouring in. As a result Mr. Griffith has had to work overtime and has had to dust off the duplicating machine to make new ones. As a consequence it was impossible to draw the teams last night and so the selection of the various members for the Majors and minors has been postponed until Friday afternoon. However, this is positively the dead line and anyone who has not a certificate turned in by that time will be out of luck as regards organized hockey for the present season. Remember all certificates must be in the hands of Mr. Griffith at the Public School no later than noon on Friday, December 14th.

On Saturday morning it is hoped that general practice for the various teams which will be drawn on Friday afternoon and evening will get under way. The first forty minutes will be for the Minors and the balance of the morning for the Majors. A list of the practices will be posted in the Arena on Saturday morning and the Captains of the various teams are expected to follow the same and to have their teams ready at the hour indicated. Next week, we hope, with the kind co-operation of The Independent to publish the hours of practice in this paper and so you are advised to consult the same for information. The Minors will consist of all registered boys whose ages are eight nine and ten respectively. The Majors will be made up of the balance of the entries.

Beer Authorities Renewed By Board

The Liquor Authority Control Board which met in the St. Catharines County Building Friday interviewed holders of beer and wine authorities for hotels and clubs in Lincoln, Welland, Haldimand, Norfolk and Brant Counties. There are approximately 175 authorities in the area.

The board presided over by Judge W. A. Robb, discussed reports from inspectors and others and general operating record of the hotel with the various owners before renewing the authority for the 1946-47 season.

During the morning session, the board which travels to various sections of the province, received 18 applications for new authorities in the five counties. Sixteen of these applications were referred for consideration, and two were rejected.

L. C. Forster, St. Catharines, is registrar of the division for the Board. F. O. Leeson, inspector of hotels for Lincoln and Welland counties attended the board sessions.

Lush And Flush

The Fergus New-Record Editor recently had his ear to the ground and remarks: On a recent weekend we could not help but admire the vocabulary of a first-year student at Toronto. He was discussing a girl from the West, and this is what he said: "Boy! That's the kind of dame I like. She's got plenty of looks and isn't proud, and plenty of dough, but she doesn't throw herself around. Yes, that's the kind of babe I can go for—she's lush and flush!"

Nature seems to even things. Most scoundrels can be very charming fellows.

TOWN COUNCIL

that ultimately they believed a Public Utilities Commission with a competent engineer to take care of all town works would have to come.

After much discussion council decided to allow matters to rest as they are and consequently the ratepayers will be asked at the election on January 7th, to express their wish as to whether they wish the Water Commission to remain as is, or be dissolved and their duties performed by Town council.

Ex-Mayor Johnson was present at the meeting for a few minutes and thanked council for the manner in which they had performed their duties during the past year and for "the way in which you looked after my business", meaning the business of all the taxpayers.

At the November meeting of council, by a vote of four to three (Reeve Lewis being absent) a motion was passed to have a bylaw prepared to purchase the strip of land at the top of Palmer's hill on Main street, and paralleling Livingston avenue from Paton street to Murray street, for road purposes, from Arthur Hewson for the sum of $500. The bylaw came up before council and passed its first reading, on second and third readings the bylaw was defeated on a recorded tie vote. Councillors Phelps, Bourne, Hewitt and Ingelhart voting for it and Mayor Bull, Reeve Lewis, Councillors Chivers and Bonham voting nay, consequently the property will not be purchased.

Council will meet with Gordon Hannah on Saturday regarding his request to erect stone pillars and a small stone fence at the driveway entrance to The Village Inn, as a portion of the property on which the fence would be built is owned by the Town.

Mayor Bull supplied council and the press with cigars, cigarettes and chocolates. Reeve Lewis garnered most of the cigars.

At close of meeting Mayor Bull thanked the members of council and all town officials and employees for their close cooperation throughout the year and wished them all the compliments of the season.

F. E. Fearn tendered his resignation as caretaker of the Municipal Building, which council did not accept.

Father O'Donnell reported to Council that the concert held in the Roxy theatre on Sunday last in aid of the United Polish Relief Fund had netted $142.42, which had been forwarded to the headquarters of the fund.

Council endorsed the resolutions.

Mayor Bull reported that the Water Commission had turned $12,000 over to the town coffers.

A motion was passed to have a bylaw to rescind the bylaw passed at the November meeting to sell to the Canadian Legion the property on Main street at the top of

Blended for Quality

"SALADA" TEA

Palmer's Hill, as council had no authority to sell this property with the restrictive powers contained in the deed. Council can, legally, lease this property to the legion for 21 or 99 years, which council agreed to do.

election. General voucher list for $2,827 was passed. Joint Fire and Light Committee accounts for $871 were ordered paid. The new truck in the past month has hauled 430 tons of stone for street purposes from Stoney Creek quarries.
